SUBJECT: TYPIC/Rigoberto Sandoval, FAO Official			MICROFILM
ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES
1. We have been advised by SDIGO-31 that Rigoberto Sandoval, a Honduran citizen and an official of the United Nations Food and Agricultural Organization (FAO), will travel to Cuba as an FAO official in January 1973. He will remain in Cuba for one week. SDIGO-31 obtained this information from Rogelio Cisneros Diaz (201-353107), a close friend of Sandoval. Subject offered to take any messages to Cisneros' relatives in Cuba and Cisneros has accepted his offer. 2. There are no Station traces on Sandoval. Cisneros is of the opinion Subject has leftist leanings and that the Castro regime may win him over. Consequently, he may return to the FAO as a Castro sympathizer. Cisneros met Sandoval when the latter was Director of the National Agrarian Institute of Honduras and Cisneros was a farm machine salesman in Latin America. Sandoval purchased about one million dollars worth of equipment from Cisneros. This strengthened their friendship. Sandoval reportedly asked Cisneros if it was true that the Peace Corps in Honduras was penetrated by BEHERALD. 3. Cisneros, who is a friend of SDIGO-31, was a former leader of the Cuban Revolutionary Junta (JURE). Lucille B. Murstig Lucille B.
